

Name of the discipline	EUROPEAN ECONOMIC INTEGRATION
Information about the faculties (educational and scientific institutes) and courses of study, students of which are invited to study this discipline	ERI "Karazin Institute of International Relations and Tourism Business", Target audience - 2nd year (3rd semester) students of the third (educational and scientific) level of higher education
Contact details of the developers of the work program of the educational discipline, scientific and pedagogical workers involved in teaching	Candidate of Economic Sciences, Assoc. Prof. Miroshnichenko Tetyana Mykolaivna 61022, Kharkiv, Svobody Square, 6, room 373; e-mail address: tatiana.miroschnichenko@karazin.ua
Prerequisites for studying the discipline	Applicants must have basic knowledge of international economic relations, world economy, international trade, international finance and economic integration. It is assumed that they understand the basic principles of the functioning of international markets, the patterns of development of the global economy and the features of international economic cooperation.
Description	Purpose of the discipline: The purpose of the discipline is to form in third-level higher education students a systematic understanding of the theoretical principles, patterns and features of European economic integration, the mechanisms of the functioning of the European Union and its single economic space, as well as the development of the ability to analyze the impact of integration processes on modern international economic relations. Expected learning outcomes As a result of studying the discipline, the student must: • Know the main theoretical concepts, patterns and stages of development of European economic integration. • Understand the features of the institutional and economic mechanism of the functioning of the European Union, the single internal market and the economic and monetary union. • Analyze modern processes of European economic integration and their impact on the development of international economic relations. • Assess the impact of integration processes on international trade, investment activity, capital movement, competitiveness and economic development of states. • Identify and critically assess current trends, problems and challenges of European integration in the context of global economic and geo-economic transformations. 6 lectures are planned Topic 1. The European Union as a model of economic integration. Topic 2. Current trends in the development of European economic integration and their impact on the world economy. Topic 3. Economic effects of the functioning of the single internal market of the European Union. Topic 4. Digital and green transformation of the EU as a factor in changing international economic relations. Topic 5. Current challenges and prospects of European economic integration. Topic 6. Ukraine in the processes of European economic integration.

	12 seminar sessions are planned: Seminars 1-2. Topic 1. The European Union as a model of economic integration. Seminars 3-4. Topic 2. Current trends in the development of European economic integration and their impact on the world economy Seminars 5-6. Topic 3. Economic effects of the functioning of the single internal market of the European Union Seminars 7-8. Topic 4. Digital and green transformation of the EU as a factor of change in international economic relations Seminars 9-10. Topic 5. Current challenges and prospects of European economic integration Seminars 11-12. Topic 6. Ukraine in the processes of European economic integration. Forms of control of learning outcomes: current control in the form of a survey and practical work, final control in the form of an TEST. Language of instruction: Ukrainian
--	---