

Name of the discipline	ECONOMIC DIPLOMACY IN THE MODERN WORLD
Information about the faculties (educational and scientific institutes) and courses of study, students of which are invited to study this discipline	ERI "Karazin Institute of International Relations and Tourism Business", Target audience - 2nd year (3rd semester) students of the third (educational and scientific) level of higher education
Contact details of the developers of the work program of the educational discipline, scientific and pedagogical workers involved in teaching	Candidate of Economic Sciences, Assoc. Prof. Miroshnichenko Tetyana Mykolaivna 61022, Kharkiv, Svobody Square, 6, room 373; e-mail address: tatiana.miroschnichenko@karazin.ua
Prerequisites for studying the discipline	Applicants must have basic knowledge of: International Economic Relations; World Economy; International Law and Foreign Economic Activity; Theory of International Relations and Diplomacy; International Monetary and Financial Relations.
Description	The purpose of the discipline: Formation of systemic theoretical knowledge and practical skills in the field of economic diplomacy among third-level higher education students, necessary for the analysis of modern foreign economic processes, understanding the mechanisms of interstate economic interaction and diplomatic support of foreign economic activity in the context of globalization and geoeconomic transformations. Expected learning outcomes: As a result of studying the discipline, the student must: 1. Know the theoretical foundations, basic concepts and principles of economic diplomacy, its role and functions in the system of modern international economic relations. 2. Understand the mechanisms of interstate economic interaction and the features of diplomatic support of the state's foreign economic activity. 3. Analyze modern foreign economic processes, trends in the development of the world economy and their impact on the economic interests of states. 4. Assess the impact of globalization, geoeconomic transformations, international competition and crisis phenomena on the formation of economic policy and diplomatic relations of states. 5. Apply modern methods and tools of economic analysis to study international economic processes and determine opportunities for protecting and promoting national economic interests. 6. Identify the main problems and risks in the field of international economic interaction and justify possible directions for their solution by means of economic diplomacy. 7. Develop proposals for diplomatic support of foreign economic activity, the development of international economic cooperation and the promotion of the economic interests of the state. 8. Formulate scientifically based conclusions and recommendations on the use of economic diplomacy tools in the context of modern global and geoeconomic transformations. 6 lectures are planned Topic 1. Theoretical and methodological principles of economic diplomacy: essence, forms, subjects. Topic 2. Economic diplomacy in the system of foreign economic policy of the state. Topic 3. Trade diplomacy and negotiation mechanisms within the framework of the WTO and regional trade agreements. Topic 4. Investment diplomacy: attracting foreign direct investment and protecting national economic interests. Topic 5. Economic diplomacy in the context of geo-economic transformations and sanctions confrontation. Topic 6. Public economic diplomacy and the role of business associations, chambers of commerce and diplomatic missions in promoting national economic interests. 12 seminar sessions are planned: Seminars 1-2. Topic 1. Theoretical and methodological principles of economic diplomacy: essence, forms, subjects. Seminars 3-4. Topic 2. Economic diplomacy in the system of foreign economic policy of the state. Seminars 5-6. Topic 3. Trade diplomacy and negotiation mechanisms within the framework of the WTO and regional trade agreements. Seminars 7-8. Topic 4. Investment diplomacy: attracting foreign direct investment and protecting national economic interests. Seminars 9-10. Topic 5. Economic diplomacy in the context of geo-economic transformations and sanctions confrontation. Seminars 11-12. Topic 6. Public economic diplomacy and the role of business associations, chambers of commerce and diplomatic missions in promoting national economic interests. Forms of control of learning outcomes: current control in the form of a survey and practical work, final control in the form of an TEST. Language of instruction: Ukrainian

--	---